Ma Belle and Sir Richard, was alone worth a visit to the track, for it promised to be a line race.

The opening dash was as usual a maiden affair, with the Same lot of Johnny O'Comnors, John R.'s, Lady Ballards and the like entered. Natile libration filly and Johnny O'Comnor were the choices, with Fancy gelding won by a head from John R., who was three parts of a length in front of Vexation gelding. John R. was an 8 to 1 chance. The track, as may be seen from the time, was leavy and bod, though fairly good going could be had on the outer rail.

Demuth, Fairy and the yearling brother to Sir Francis and balfbrother to Yorkville Belle, called Dobbins, at the Eiret sale on Saturday night, will strengthen Mr. Dwyer's stable very strengthon Mr. Dwyer's stable very materially. In addition Mr. Dwyer has his reliable campaigners, Banquet, King-aton, Nomad and others to back him up. Nomad gives promise of being a grand horse next year. His brilliant victories late in the Fall, after a hard scason's campaigning, can-not be overlooked. With these and his new purchases the all white will be hard to beat

Mr. Dwyer took the pick of the Ehret lot. In giving 630,000 for Don Alonzo he testified that he did not believe the stories circulated concerning the smallness of this great colt's heart. The writer believes Don Alonzo the best investment of the lot, and he is capitally

Mr. Dwyer's lot cost him just $00,500, and as he quit a good $100,000 winner in his election wagers the horses were purchased

The notice that torn or mutilated tickets would not be paid on Gloucester races still remains on the blackboard in the Guttenburg betting ries. The Association having taken no action in this matter must be put on record as sanctioning this petty swindle. Judge Burke brought the King Crab people up with a round turn on Saturday, and the act is applauded by all lovers of inir play. When Mr. Burke refused to allow Feeney to rise King Crab the parties controlling the horse tried a blinf. They threatened to take away their horses. They were barking up the wrong tree when they tried this game, and weakened when Mr. Burke told them that if Feeney rode he must be put up all the time. Horton was maily given the mount. King Crab was besten, but no jockey could have landed him in front of Blitzen on Saturday.

When sing Crab was sold by Mr. Corochisen to W. C. Winter one of the alleged conditions of the sale was that Horton was not to be permitted to ride the old gelding. If such a condition was really made the new Bookmakers Scoffin & Co. desire the statement corrected that Plunger Losier, whose real name is said to be Lasher. Is in any was interested in their firm. They declare that the riunger was one of their cierks, and it said he is thinking of returning to England Scoffin & Co. do not enjoy the notoriety which Lasher's plunging has given them. The comfortable quarters recently occupied by F. A. Ehret's horses at Morris Park have been secured by Gideon & Daly. The stables are the best at Westchester, Trainer Matt Allen having made many improvements. The place is inclosed by glass and covered walks have been built, so that the horses could be

It is said that Saivator's coits closely re-semble him, nearly all being chestnut and having his peculiar markings.

Things were strangely turned around in the closing event at Guttenburg on Saturday. The horse that should have been lest was first and the horse that looked the winner Hoey had another gallop on Saturday. Some day a horse will stick to him during the first part of the race and his soft heart will open out of his boots.
